

Next Meeting

The Manhattan Chapter is proud to present:

A Magical Mystery Tour of Natural Color Diamonds with your guide Alan Bronstein

Alan Bronstein is a diamond expert and trader in natural color diamonds for 30 years. He is the collector of The Aurora Pyramid of Hope and The Aurora Butterfly of Peace. Join Alan on a photo journey that takes us through the exotic realm of diamond colors.

Picture yourself on a boat on a river with tangerine trees and marmalade skies...

Date:

December 8, 2009
Tuesday

Time:

6:00 PM Cash Bar & Networking
6:30 PM Dinner
7:30 PM Lecture

Place: National Arts Club, 15 Gramercy Park South (on 20th St. bet. Park Ave. South and Lexington)

Please mail your non-refundable fee of: $42 Students, $46 Members, $52 Nonmembers No credit cards, please. Attendance without reservations will require cash at the door, based on space availability.

To: Gail B. Levine, G.G., P.O. Box 7683, Rego Park, NY 11374 718.897.7305

At this meeting, our speaker is donating to the raffle:

Collecting and Classifying Coloured Diamonds: An Illustrated Study of the Aurora Collection (Hardcover)
by Stephen C. Hofer

Grateful appreciation to Howard Rubin and Blue Cap Productions for their generous donation at the November meeting. It contributed toward the 2009 effort for the Eunice Miles Scholarship Fund. If anyone would like to donate anything to the Eunice Miles Scholarship Fund raffle, please let us know! Its tax deductible.

GIA Alumni Association members will earn 4-carat points for attending this meeting. Calendar of events and more on the Manhattan Chapter's new and improved website.

www.ManhattanGIAAlumni.org

Members: Please join us on FaceBook! Share your thoughts pertaining to our meetings etc. Please no advertising or subjects too personal.